Major: DUP deal 'could hit NI peace'

SIR John Major says he's "concerned" about the impact a deal between the Democratic Unionist Party and the Tories could have on the Northern Ireland peace process, and warned that "hard men" were still "lurking in the corners of communities".

The former prime minister said the peace process was still "fragile" and said an agreement could mean the Government will no longer be seen as impartial.

He told BBC Radio 4's World At One programme that he was "wary" and "dubious" about a deal.

Major said: "We need to be prepared for the unexpected, we need to hope for the best but prepare for the worst.

"The last thing anybody wishes to see is one or other of the communities so aggrieved that the hard men, who are still there lurking in the corners of the communities, decide they wish to return to some form of violence."

Speaker Bercow gets re-elected

JOHN Bercow has been re-elected as Commons Speaker, telling MPs: "We appear to be destined for testing times, I offer myself to the House as a tested Speaker."

The Buckingham MP added he will ensure all parts of the House are heard "fully and fairly", with the rights of backbenchers championed in order to hold the Government to account.

Mr Bercow had been expected to face a challenge if the Tories secured an increased majority in the Election.

GOVE: IT WAS HARD ...NOW IT'S SOFT!

BREXIT RETHINK

WORKING WITH EVERYONE: Michael Gove

BORN-again Cabinet minister Michael Gove says the Government is ready to pursue a softer Brexit deal and work with Labour to get it through Parliament.

The newly-appointed Environment Secretary said the EU referendum result must be honoured but it is "really important" that the exit package is "in the interests of the whole country".

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

Pressed on reports of secret talks between Cabinet ministers and Labour MPs, Mr Gove said the two parties had a "similar" position on Brexit and the reality of the hung parliament meant the Government would have to "work with everyone".

He said: "I think the right thing to do is honour the vote that the British public made just a year ago.

"We voted then to take back control of our borders and our laws and to take back control of our money and trade deals.

Secure

"But it's also really important we make sure the Brexit deal we secure is one that's in the interests of the whole country.

"And that means that we need to ensure that those who voted Remain are part of the conversation about what the best deal for Britain is in the future."

Mr Gove said: "Labour argued that we should leave the EU and end free movement – in effect be outside the single market.

"Their position on this was very similar to the Conservative position according to their manifesto."

Asked if that meant the Government would work with Labour, Mr Gove replied: "Well the parliamentary arithmetic is such that we are going to have to work with everyone."

Mr Gove said the Tory failure to win a majority meant Brexit must proceed with the "maximum possible consensus".

Speaking on Radio 4's Today programme he added: "As Conservatives were not returned with a majority, that means that we need to proceed with the maximum possible consensus.

"We also need to make sure that the concerns of people who voted Remain, many of whom now actually want us to press ahead with leaving the EU as quickly and as in as orderly fashion as possible, are part of our conversation."

Asked about the possible formation of a cross party Brexit commission, he said: "I don't think that I should specify and I don't want to specify means by which we should involve everyone in our conversation.

"But the House of Commons already has, as I say, a Brexit committee on which I served alongside Labour and Scottish Nationalist MPs and we produced reports – those reports were achieved by consensus.

"The most important thing is if you want to proceed with the maximum possible support that you engage in an open conversation."

Corbyn mocks May's 'strong stable' slogan

JEREMY Corbyn mocked Theresa May's campaign slogans as he said Labour will offer "strong and stable leadership" if her "coalition of chaos" fails.

The Labour leader was applauded by his MPs as he arrived in the chamber following his party's gains at the June 8 General Election.

He made light of Mrs May's troubles as Prime Minister as she bids to agree a deal with the Democratic Unionist Party to prop up her Conservative administration.

Responding following the re-election of John Bercow as Commons Speaker, Mr Corbyn told MPs: "It's customary on these occasions to congratulate the returning Prime Minister – and I absolutely do so.

"I congratulate her on returning and I'm sure she'll agree with me that democracy is a wondrous thing, and can throw up some very unexpected results.

"I'm sure we all look forward to welcoming the Queen's Speech just as soon as the coalition of chaos has been negotiated.

"I must let the House know – and the rest of the nation know – that if that is not possible, the Labour Party stands ready to offer strong and stable leadership in the national interest."

Schoolboy held as shotgun is seized in class

POLICE have seized a shotgun and ammunition after a report that a teen was in possession of a firearm at a secondary school.

Warwickshire Police said a teenager had been arrested after officers were called to Higham Lane School in Nuneaton, at 9.15am yesterday.

Superintendent David Gardner said: "We responded promptly and the boy was quickly isolated and the incident contained to ensure there was no risk to pupils and staff.

"The initial report was received from the suspect himself and he was co-operative with police. Officers were on the scene quickly and he was placed under arrest.

"We will now carry out inquiries to establish exactly what happened and address any issues around the firearm."

"You love strong women @piersmorgan I would make u my little submissive bitch & u would love every second of it. I would video tape you masturbating to my pic while apologising to me then post that on behalf of feminism."

Piers hit back, saying: "My worry would be you'd want to live-stream it to Instagram. Shall we have a cup of tea instead to discuss where you're going wrong re feminism?"

Ronaldo accused of £13m tax fraud

FOOTIE legend Cristiano Ronaldo has been accused of defrauding Spain's tax office of £12.9million in unpaid taxes.

Authorities say the Real Madrid footballer used what it deems a shell company in the Virgin Islands to "create a screen in order to hide his total income from Spain's Tax Office".

The prosecutor added that 32-year-old star "intentionally" did not declare income of £25m made from the cession of image rights from 2015-20 to another firm located in Spain.

And the prosecutor accused Ronaldo of declaring £10.1m earned from 2011-14 in a tax return filed in 2014, when the prosecutor said his real income was £38m.

NICOLA McLEAN

CELEBRITY Big Brother favourites Nicola McLean, Marnie Simpson and Gemma Collins are set to move back into the C5 house this week.

The reality show had previously announced a CBB crossover with the current non-celeb version of the series which is in its second week.

By COLIN HURST

As part of this week's shopping task, Big Bro housemates will have to cater to the whims and diva demands of their VIP guests.

But with a notoriously high-maintenance trio ready to move in, they will really have their work cut out!

Glamour model Nicola first appeared as a CBB housemate in 2012, but was most recently seen on the show during a second stint in January when she had a series of explosive rows with fellow housemates Kim Woodburn and Jedward.

Geordie Shore's Marnie came fourth in the contest last year and later claimed to have secretly had sex with housemate Lewis Bloor in the house.

The Only Way Is Essex star Gemma also took part in 2016 but left to a chorus of boos when she was evicted, saying she had been a "pantomime villain".

Collins famously quit ITV's I'm A Celeb... in 2014 after just 72 hours – saying she couldn't hack the gruelling Aussie jungle-based contest.

See how the Big Bro housemates react to their celeb guests in tonight's episode on C5 at 10pm.

Enders Lee takes break over illness

EASTENDERS star Lee Ryan is leaving hospital and taking a "rest" from the soap after falling ill.

The actor and Blue singer, 33, who has also suffered a throat cancer scare, was rushed to hospital at the weekend with quinsy – a serious form of tonsillitis.

A source said: "He is on his way home this morning. He was rushed to hospital early on Saturday morning with quinsy.

"He won't be working this week as he needs a 10-day rest. But he'll be ready to go back on set next week."

An EastEnders source said filming had not been affected.

Ryan made his first appearance on Albert Square as Woody Woodward, who took over the Queen Vic in the absence of landlord Mick Carter (Danny Dyer), back in April.

His stint in hospital comes less than two years after doctors found a cyst in the Blue singer's throat, which was removed over cancer fears.

LOVE ISLAND TYNE:

Rocky dumped me for Kendall Jenner!

RAPPED: Yank star A$AP ditched Tyne-Lexy

LOVE Island* beauty Tyne-Lexy Clarson was DUMPED by A$AP Rocky for supermodel Kendall Jenner.

The show's latest addition entered the luxury villa on Sunday looking for love but she also revealed her A-list connections.

Tyne-Lexy, 20, claims she got dumped by American rapper A$AP, 28, and only realised when she saw photos of him with Kendall, 21.

She said: "A$AP Rocky was messaging me. But he stopped replying, and that's when I saw pictures of him and Kendall at the Met Gala."

Romance

Kendall and A$AP were rumoured to have been dating weeks before that event but confirmed their romance with a series of loved-up snaps.

They were spotted looking cosy on the red carpet before Kendall's sisters, Kylie Jenner and Kim Kardashian, caught their intimate moment on camera and uploaded it to Instagram.

Busty Brummie Tyne-Lexy says she's attracted a couple of A-list celebrities but nothing has gone further than a flirty chat on social media.

The stunna has also had a taste of celebrity too, as she appeared on Channel 4 hit show Shameless when she was younger.

She said: "I've been in Shameless as an extra when I was 14. I've messaged the odd famous person on Instagram but not gone on dates with them."

However, she's now keen to take the plunge and is looking for her perfect man on the ITV2 reality show – and has set her sights on Chris Hughes, 24.

SWIMWEAR model Kara Del Toro proved she looks just as good with her clothes ON when she stepped out in a long white frock.

The American pin-up flaunted her superb knockers in a low cut dress as she posed on the red carpet at the LA premiere of new movie 47 Metres Down.

And it wasn't just her famous cleavage she put on display either, as the split on 23-year-old Kara's kit almost stretched all the way up to her crotch as she flashed her toned legs.

PALS have revealed that Page 3 legend Katie Price is planning to follow ex-husband Peter Andre halfway around the world.

The mum-of-five is apparently desperate to bag herself the support act slot for Peter's upcoming tour of Australia.

An inside source said: "Katie thinks teaming up with Peter in Oz is a no-brainer. She knows there's still a nostalgia surrounding them and is convinced they'll have more success if she's his support act.

"She's under the impression they might be able to rebuild the sort of fan base they had at the height of their marriage. That's something she's definitely missed since their split".

Katie, 39, teamed up musically with Peter in 2006.

PORNHUB celebrated its 10th birthday last week and now more than 75 MILLION of us visit their site every day.

The world's 44th most popular website launched in 2007 but now boasts an extensive collection of more than 10 million skin flicks.

Which means there's more than 1.5 million hours' worth of porn to enjoy on the site!

A new survey by PornHub has revealed how porn-watching habits have developed over their 10-year history and the unusual searches which spike when worldwide events suddenly unfold.

Users spend, on average, nine minutes browsing through nine pages of the site.

But when it launched in 2007, people were much more curious and spent around 14 minutes flicking through 13 pages online.

These days, the average visitor spends four minutes less than visitors in 2007 did and browse fewer pages as well.

Despite the number of videos and hours of content increasing, the amount of time visitors spend on PornHub has actually decreased.

The survey explains the decrease in time spent on their site: "The worldwide penetration of broadband internet has grown considerably in that time, so faster loading means less waiting,"

In 2007, just 134 hours' worth of content was uploaded to the site but last year a whopping 476,291 hours of X-rated porn was made available on PornHub.

Since its launch in 2007, the site has seen consistent increases in the number of uploaded videos.

Despite the amount of porn available, people still have their favourite sex categories they love to indulge in.

Over the last 10 years, viewers have consistently clicked on videos featuring 'amateurs', 'MILFs' and 'lesbians' more than anything else on the site.

Between 2007 and 2010, 'amateur' porn was the most viewed category before 'teen' porn took the title in back in 2011.

MILFs had their moment at the top of the most-viewed between 2012 and 2014 but since 2015, 'lesbian' porn has retained the most viewed category crown.

Horny Yanks watch the most porn in the world but randy Brits run them a close second watching millions of hours of adult content every year.

When PornHub launched in 2007, just 1% of visitors accessed the adult website from their mobile phones.

However, thanks to technological advances, now more than 75% of PornHub's users get to their favourite pleasures on their phones.

Technology has had a huge impact on how people view their favourite pornography – when the site launched 10 years ago 99% of visitors accessed it via their desktop computer.

Back then, just 1% of people went online via their mobile phones but a steady increase has seen a huge shift.

In 2014, 46% of visitors accessed porn via their computers with 56% using their mobiles to find grot.

Android users now account for 53% of the 75% of mobile traffic, with Apple iPhone users making up the remaining 43% while just 25% of people now use their computers.

Although there are some categories which people always click on and go back to for a quick release, current events see huge spikes in certain types of adult content.

Reality TV star Kim Kardashian has seen her popularity in the porn industry soar on two separate occasions.

Her now infamous sex tape with ex-boyfriend Ray-J was leaked in 2007 and which saw her crowned PornHub's most popular porn star the following year.

Last October, she rose up the ranks again as her armed robbery in Paris saw searches for 'burglar' type porn become the second-fastest growing search term.

Cuban dictator Fidel Castro survived more than 600 assassination attempts but he died last November at the age of 90.

As news of his death broke across the globe, searches for 'Cuban maid' spiked on the site with users frantic to get a quick fix of lusty Latin women in sex action.

US election night was one of the events of 2016 and almost as soon as Donald Trump's victory was announced, traffic on PornHub grew by a whopping 10%.

President Trump also affected searches in January after rumours of a tape involving him in an uncompromising position began circulating.

Searches for 'golden showers' quickly started on the adult site and spiked by a massive 289%.

Annual events aren't protected from porn either with traditions being celebrated with a quick wank to some unusual search terms.

'Elf' porn rockets around the festive period with 464% growth for Santa's little helper-themed videos around Christmas.

Christmas is PornHub's quietest time, with Christmas Eve seeing visits plummet by 45%.

But people still manage an early morning Christmas Day present to themselves as visitors spike to 34% above the average on December 25.

Valentine's Day also sees PornHub take a big hit as traffic to their site drops by 17% after 6pm on the romantic celebration.

When Father's Day comes around though, plenty of users flock to the sight in search of 'dad' or 'daddy' skinflicks.

Searches for both those terms go up by 1,361% – the highest increase on any search term on an annual celebratory day.

Midnight seems to be the most popular time for naughty night owls to log on and get busy to their favourite porn.

But with more than 173 years' worth of content to scour through, maybe it should be a 24-hour job!

BB Arthur says he was bullied

BIG Brother* contestant Arthur Fulford has said he left the reality TV house after just seven days because he felt "bullied and isolated."

Arthur, 24, – heir to his family's 3,000-acre estate – clashed with some fellow contestants during his brief stay, including Ex On The Beach star Kayleigh Morris and Lotan Carter.

The show's Twitter account announced his departure on Sunday but didn't give an explanation.

But in and interview Arthur said: "It all became way too much. I felt bullied and isolated.

"Every year Big Brother has a 'cool group' of young, good-looking models. They treat the rest as their inferiors and that infuriated me."

TIGER'S 'FATAL' DRUG DOSE

ADDICTION: Woods has a history of prescription drug abuse

Was lethal cocktail a suicide bid?

TIGER Woods had a potentially fatal mix of drugs in his body when found asleep at the wheel of his car by cops – sparking fears he might have been trying to KILL himself.

A deadly cocktail of the prescription drugs Xanax and Vicodin were found in his system, which accounted for the much-viewed arrest video of him struggling to walk in a straight line and looking out of it in his mugshots.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The first public reports blanked out Woods' replies when asked if he had taken medications, but a new version of the report reveals that he told officers he'd taken anxiety drug Xanax as well as the painkiller.

That's a dangerous combination, as they can inhibit the body's ability to breathe, and it's known that suicides have used the drugs.

Doing so can result in "serious risks and deaths", say experts.

Dr Jeff Lewis, dean of the Gregory School of Pharmacy at Palm Beach Atlantic Uni, said it was "quite possible" that the combination had left Woods in the delirious stupor cops found him in the early hours of May 29.

He said: "Drugs have varying effects on individuals. A little bit of drug might have little effect on one person and a lot on someone else."

Woods, who's suffered severe back problems, had previously been to rehab for a Vicodin addiction and is now being treated for pain killer addiction.

Woods, 41, was arrested asleep in his damaged £180K Mercedes by the side of the road near his home in Jupiter, Florida.

He was then filmed swaying in the street and slurring his words.

He was later taken to a Jupiter police station where he struggled to blow into a breathalyser and fell asleep in a chair.

Woods had taken four different prescription drugs. In a statement after his arrest, he said his sleepy state was an adverse reaction to them.

His court appearance is scheduled for July 5. If convicted, he could face six months' jail.

Oral sex scene halts reality TV

REALITY television show Bachelor In Paradise has been shut down after two contestants got sexual.

A producer on the US show complained about DeMario Jackson, 30, and Corinne Olympios, 24, getting 'too excited' by the pool.

During the first day of production, the pair started snogging and there was tons of 'intense rubbing'.

They then went to the pool and, with the cameras still on, they stripped and began 'rubbing, touching and fingering'.

Corinne then put her vagina in DeMario's face and he began performing oral sex on her but wasn't able to have full sex because they were drunk.

A formal complaint was lodged with Warner Bros. who then immediately suspended production of the reality show.

Charrissa Loren Brown-Wellington, 31, appeared at Manchester and Salford Magistrates' Court yesterday charged with the murder of Philip Carter.

Mr Carter, who has not been formally named by police but was named in court, died after being hit by a tram at Victoria station in Manchester on Sunday evening.

Greater Manchester Police said Mr Carter was pushed from the platform in front of a moving tram.

Brown-Wellington was remanded in custody to appear at Manchester Crown Court today.

ADMISSION: Chanelle had sex in Big Bro house

Big Brother Chanelle's 3-week sex marathon

BIG BONKER!

FORMER Big Brother contestant Chanelle Hayes has lifted the lid on her THREE-WEEK bonk-a-thon.

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

THE 29-year-old former model was just 19 when she took part in series eight of the reality show, back in 2007.

Chanelle hit it off with housemate Ziggy Lichman during her stint in the house and initially denied that the pair had gotten up to no good on the show.

Slapper

But since leaving the house reality TV babe Chanelle revealed that she actually lied because she didn't want to be thought of as a 'slapper'.

Despite lying for so long, Chanelle, from Wakefield, West Yorks, admitted that not only did she and Ziggy, now 36, have sex – they actually shagged every single day for three whole weeks.

She said: "I know I've always denied that anything happened in Big Brother other than arguments and drama because I didn't want to sound like the UK's biggest slapper.

"But now we've got Geordie Shore and The Valleys I feel totally OK being honest and saying we actually had sex every day for about three weeks.

"Sorry, not sorry!"

Chanelle pursued a relationship with Ziggy after she left the house before the couple split after Ziggy denied that they had been engaged.

The Posh spice 'lookalike' then hooked up with former Middlesbrough FC player Matthew Bates who she shares son Blakely, six, with.

Chanelle is now dating PE teacher Ryan Oates and is expecting her second 'miracle' baby after struggling with her weight recently.

After piling on the pounds and going up to a size 16, Chanelle went on ITV's Loose Women earlier this year to defend her weight gain and insist she's never been happier.

She said: "I'm really embracing my body – why should there be more emphasis on weight?

"I'm nearly 30, my metabolism has slowed down and I've put on weight.

"I'm a size 16 and happier than ever."

Palin donates Python books to the public

MONTY Python star Michael Palin has donated his personal archive – including 50 notebooks relating to the hit comedy show – to the British Library.

The archive spans the writer, actor, comedian and TV presenter's literary and creative life for more than 20 years, from 1965 to 1987.

And the "Python notebooks" contain drafts, working material and personal reflections relating to Palin's writing as part of the surreal comedy troupe.

Michael joked: "My work has been inspired by, and created in, this country, so I'm very pleased that my archive has been accepted by the British Library, and that they will make it publicly available, so that future generations will know not to make the same mistakes again."

He's also donated his personal diaries as well as project files, containing material relating to his film, TV and literary work.

The collection will be available to view in the British Library from spring 2018.

Eva: Victoria can drink me under the table

SLEEPOVERS: Eva and Posh are great drinking buddies

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

DESPERATE Housewives stunna Eva Longoria has revealed best pal Victoria Beckham can hold her booze better than her.

The actress claims she could learn a thing or two from the former Spice Girl when it comes to drinking.

Eva, 42, said that she and Victoria, who have been good pals since they first met in LA years ago, regularly get together for sleepovers and enjoy a few tipples.

She also revealed that while she would choose wine, mum-of-four Victoria's drink of choice would be tequila.

Eva said: "We're very silly together. We stay in. We have sleepovers.

"My calories of choice are wine.

Tequila

"Actually she's more a tequila girl though.

"I can't do tequila but she's good.

"She coan drink me under the table."

Eva recently celebrated her one-year wedding anniversary with hubby José Antonio Baston and revealed that the couple prefer to spend their time at home together.

She explained: "We are homebodies. In the evening we like to open a bottle of wine and cook.

"There are many nights when we have friends over and we wake up, like, 'Ouch! How did that happen?'

"We don't go out partying, we get accidentally drunk."

HUNDREDS of celeb babes have had their private pictures leaked online, but here's what they're trying to cover up.

Celebrities from all walks of life have seen their most intimate moments caught on camera and shared across the internet.

From homemade porn movies to saucy topless snaps, online hackers have stolen the lot and made them widely available on the net.

However, most of these showbiz stunnas have already stripped off and shown their bare boobs before – either on-screen or on their holidays. And here they are!

Kim Kardashian, 36, for example, had her very own sex tape leaked online and despite making millions from the skinflick, she posed naked for Paper magazine back in 2014.

Actresses Sienna Miller, 35, and Amanda Seyfried, 31, have both gone topless for film roles but were left furious when their saucy selfies were leaked.

Despite making a living from her 32E chest, glamour girl Rhian Sugden, 30, was also left red-faced after her X-rated images found their way online.

As much as they're trying to stay covered up, we've uncovered the topless totties' hottest ever moments…

Ewan: Fame gets me off speeding fine

HOLLYWOOD star Ewan McGregor says fame has helped him out of sticky situations.

The 46-year-old Trainspotting actor (above) said he escaped a hefty driving penalty when he was caught speeding around London on his motorbike.

Ewan said he feared the worst when he was pulled over by a cop.

But the Moulin Rouge star revealed that his fame came in handy when the officer arrested him and let him walk away with just a slap on the wrist.

Ewan said: "I was going so fast round Regent's Park because the road's just a ring – like a race track.

"A policeman stopped me, went behind me, put on the siren and I was thinking, 'Shit' because I was really going over the speed limit.

"He said, 'Now Mr McGregor, I don't think you're going to get away with riding that fast around Regent's Park in front of a policeman'.

"But he let me off"

Murdered MP Jo's sis: Life is still a struggle

THE sister of murdered MP Jo Cox says she has not yet fully come to terms with her death or had time to grieve.

Kim Leadbeater said: "That doesn't mean we don't have days where it really can be a struggle to keep going, but so far we're managing.

"One thing that drives you is thinking what Jo would want you to do, and Jo wouldn't want this to take any more from us than it already has done."

Mrs Cox was shot and stabbed on June 16 last year as she arrived for a constituency surgery in Birstall, West Yorks.

Thomas Mair was given a whole life term in November after being convicted of her murder.

Hatton Garden Job is the hottest DVD for Father's Day

IT'S the hottest DVD in the charts right now – and it's the perfect gift for Father's Day on Sunday!

The Hatton Garden Job had already broken download records since it was released in April – now the DVD, which came out this week, is the fasting selling new release of the year.

And the story of one of the most daring and audacious crime capers in British criminal history is a perfect present for dads everywhere this weekend.

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

The movie – about the burglary that made headlines round the world – is the most explosive and exciting British crime thriller ever made.

Forget the rest. The Hatton Garden Job raises the bar to a whole new level, thanks to its irresistible blend of the daring scheme, tense action, A-list stars and a sprinkling of humour. It's got the lot.

Classic

Former EastEnders stars Larry Lamb and Phil Daniels join Matthew Goode and Joely Richardson in the all-star cast. It's a classic that will appeal to people of all ages and it's certain to be talked about for years.

Over one Easter weekend two years ago, four old school career criminal OAPs burrowed their way into the safe deposit vault of in London's Hatton Garden district and scarpered with more than £200million worth of swag.

The ageing East End criminals – led by 76-year-old Brian Reader – went down an old lift shaft and, with an industrial drill normally used when laying pipelines, they bored holes in the side of the vault.

The film, in which Larry plays Reader and Phil stars as his right hand man Danny Jones, focuses on the planning of the heist, the daring raid itself and the gang's attempts to keep one step ahead of the various organisations chasing after them following the theft.

With everyone from the Hungarian mob to Scotland Yard on their tail, these old-school – and just plain old – villains set about achieving the seemingly impossible, the perfect robbery.

This is classic British crime caper movie, a mixture of tense action, charm and a healthy dose of corrupt coppers that brings back fond memories of great movies like the Lavender Hill Mob, The Italian Job and The Sweeney.

Corrie Beth Euro sex traffic hell

CORONATION Street's Bethany Platt is at a crossroads that could lead to disaster next week when her evil fiancé tries to sex-traffic her abroad.

Viewers of the ITV soap have seen the troubled teen pimped out to older men by Nathan Curtis (Chris Harper) since she began a relationship with him.

Next week, Bethany (Lucy Fallon) will face a life-changing decision when Nathan pressures her to pack up her things, run away from Weatherfield and move to Belgium with him.

Her illusions of a romantic new start are shattered when she tells Nathan she can't find her passport.

But he arranges a new one for her on the drive up to the port in Hull, revealing he won't be travelling with her.

Panicking about what will happen to her after she sets sail for Belgium, Bethany tries to ask what his plans are but he snaps at her to stay quiet.

Meanwhile, the police have been alerted and join the chase to catch up with Nathan, who has broken his bail conditions.

Broken babes... topless!

ANNA FRIEL

LEAD ROLE: Sean Bean

PAULA MALCOMSON

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

WHEN it comes to casting topless stunnas, the BBC know what they're doing – judging by the cast of their latest drama.

Gorgeous Anna Friel and Paula Malcomson star alongside Sean Bean as a Catholic priest in new series Broken.

It follows Father Michael Kerrigan (Bean) as he battles his own demons, while trying to act as a counsellor and confident to his congregation in the north of England.

Talents

He gets involved with a local mum-of-three Christina Fitzsimmons, who is left with no way to feed her children and is pushed to the brink when tragedy hits.

Former Brookside scorcher Anna, 40, plays Christina and while the role looks set to show off her talents as an actress, we're not sure she'll be showing off her other big talents as she did in 2013's The Look of Love.

And Paula Malcomson, 46, who stars as Roz Demichelis, has bared her baps on screen on several occasions, including for her role in hit US show Ray Donovan.

Catch Broken on Tuesday nights at 9pm on BBC1.

WILDLIFE presenter Kate Humble says she loves being at one with nature and often strips NAKED to connect with the world.

The BBC TV host, 48, insists she's not a nudist but does enjoy a naked dance in the great outdoors.

She said: "I'm not a nudist, but sometimes I feel compelled to take my clothes off and have a nudie dance.

"There are certain places in the world that are just very beautiful and there's something celebratory and primeval about just taking off all your clothes and having a dance.

"Not for anyone else, I do it on my own. It's my way of connecting with nature.

"I can't explain it but I urge you to give it a go."

Kate, who is best known for her roles on Springwatch, sparked debate last year when she admitted she never wanted to have children.

Instead, the blonde has chosen to spend her life surrounded by animals with her hubby on a farm.

THE first ever pornographic film came out in 1895, a few months after the first regular movie.

Goose shit on 17 Disney fans

A POLICE hazardous material team was called out when a flock of geese started shitting all over tourists at Disneyland.

More than 17 people were affected when the birds, flying over the California theme park, let loose a huge volley of bird crap.

Six children and 11 adults ended up covered in excrement and things were so bad that the cops Hazmat team had to be called in to clean up the mess.

Thankfully no-one was seriously injured during the avian attack but several children were said to be quite distressed.

An Anaheim Police spokesman said on Twitter: "Guests hit with faecal matter – appears to be geese that flew over."

A source said: "These geese were in a dive-bombing formation and letting loose all over the place!"

Batman: My EIGHT women a night sex bonanza!

DRESSED FOR SEX: Ward often bonked in costume

SEXUAL VAMPIRES: Ward and Gorshin got into orgies too

TELLY icon Adam West admitted having sex with EIGHT different women a night at the height of his fame as TV's Batman.

The actor led a wild life packed with tons of booze and bonks.

West died last week at the age of 88 after a short battle with leukaemia.

He played the Caped Crusader on TV in the 1960s and reckoned his role as the superhero helped him with the ladies.

West was joined on his booze-fuelled sex rampages by co-stars Burt Ward, who played Robin, and Frank Gorshin, aka The Riddler.

He said: "Burt and I were like kids in a candy store.

Swinging

"It was the Swinging Sixties with free love and women threw themselves at us.

"I remember regularly going with eight different women a night. Orgy is a strong word, but it was eight at one time.

"I'd even have young female co-stars in my dressing room at 7.45 in the morning.

"They would come to me then for sex throughout the day – some days I wouldn't stop shagging until two the next morning."

West became a regular visitor to wild orgies and his behaviour even saw him BANNED from one sex party.

Gorshin and Ward would go to sex parties with West and indulge in marathon group sex sessions.

Once, they were thrown out for wearing their TV costumes and pretending to be their alter egos.

West explained: "We walked in and it was an orgy.

"So I immediately went into the Batman character, and Frank went into the Riddler character, because we were getting the big giggles.

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

"It was so funny to us, what we walked into. And we were kicked out. We were expelled from the orgy."

Ward said their costumes drove women "crazy".

He also revealed how West would even have sex during filming sequences for the TV show when the camera was off him.

He said: "It was non-stop with Adam, he had real staying power.

"He'd have quickies while we were on set. Mind you, because of the physical limitations of the costume, you gotta have quickies!

"We were like two hungry sharks in a world of unlimited halibut. We're talking about wild times in the dressing rooms, on the set, between the shots, in the lunch wagon.

"And then of course, doing the personal appearances on the weekend, that's where it really got wild.

Banging

"I have to be honest with you, we became like sexual vampires. The 1960s was a period of free love.

"We were the ones being chased. Women were banging on our windows while we were bedded down with other women."

"If you look at our show, you'll see that we always stood with our legs open, our fists on hips and our bat bulges forward, which had a profound effect on women."

Despite his role on the show, West also attracted a new legion of fans as Mayor Adam West on hit animated TV series Family Guy.

He also voiced Batman in 2014's The Lego Movie and revisited the caped crusader for this year's The Lego Batman Movie.

This might make you fidget a bit, though!

FIDGET spinners are the latest teenage craze – but now adults can get in on the fun too as a special fidget spinner BUTT PLUG has been launched.

Fidget spinners have taken the world by storm in recent months and were initially aimed at helping children concentrate.

Kinkier

But it hasn’t taken long for an X-rated version of the toy to hit shelves, and older consumers can now get their hands on a far kinkier spinner online.

The metal backdoor stimulators are being flogged on website Etsy and come in a range of sizes.

The helpful production description says: “Keep that a$$ focussed [sic].

“That’s right, help combat ADHD and get stuff done with your very own booty spinning adventure toy!”

Divorce for ‘love rat’ WWE champ

THE wife of a WWE champ has filed for divorce after claiming he cheated on her with a RING GIRL.

Bray Wyatt, 30 – whose real name is Windham Rotunda – is accused of playing away behind his wife of five years’ back with ring girl and interviewer Jojo Offerman.

Wyatt’s missus, Samantha Rotunda, has requested custody of their two daughters and ownership of their home after accusing her college sweetheart of ‘adultery and misdeeds’ in divorce papers.

The couple, who tied the knot in 2012, separated in March this year after Wyatt allegedly walked out on her and their two daughters, aged six and four.

Mrs Rotunda’s lawyer, Ray Rafool, then outed Jojo, 23, as the third party that Bray is accused of having a fling with and said he has evidence that the pair have been in ‘continuous contact’.

BUSTY blonde bombshell Ines Cudna said she’ll try anything once and revealed she gets the most intense orgasms from ANAL SEX.

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

The 31-year-old model, originally from Poland, said she works hard on her bum in the gym, to make sure it’s more than ready for action.

And it’s not just bum fun that floats her boat – she’s up for all kinds of kinky stuff and will try absolutely anything.

Ines said: “It’s great when you’re both in the mood for no-holds-barred naughtiness and really lose your inhibitions.

“I love it when you wake up and think, ‘Wow, I’ve never done that before!’

“I have the best orgasms from a bit of bum fun – if it’s done right. A finger gently inserted is quite arousing – and then I’m ready for action!

“My bum is pert and juicy. I like a bottom that’s meaty, so I do lots of squats to keep it in perfect shape.”

Prostitute sold sex to lad aged 15

A HOOKER was arrested after she BONKED a 15-year-old who hired her online.

Trisha Baia (above), 25, was contacted by the unidentified teen, who arranged for a paid romp after spotting an Internet advert offering her sexual services.

Baia – who advertised herself as 'Pretty Little Thing' – is said to have agreed a £100 fee.

After receiving the address by text, Baia drove to his family home for the shagging session.

When she arrived at the address, in Pasco County, Florida, the lad told her he could only pay £60, which she allegedly agreed to.

The schoolboy then took her inside and told officers that he warned her to be quiet while they bonked as his parents were asleep.

But his mum later found out and reported the matter to cops.

Undercover officers then contacted Baia with the phone number the victim had used and she was arrested and charged with sex offences with a boy.

Baia told police that the victim had claimed to be 19.

DRAMA: Hit Yank telly series Prison Break

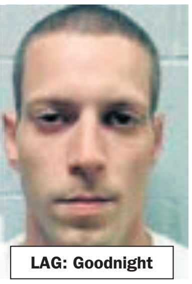
THE REAL PRISON BREAK!

4 crawl out of jail



LAG: Goodnight

OUT: Moody

KILLER: Irvin

RUNNER: Baker

FOUR dangerous inmates at a tough jail have escaped through the prison's ventilation system – in scenes like those from a top TV drama series.

The daring breakout – like something off hit US show Prison Break – took place in the early hours of Monday.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

For two of the lags this is their second bid for freedom within three months, following an earlier breakout through the same ventilation system.

The escapees were identified as Jeremy Tyson Irvin, 31, Brian Allen Moody, 23, Sonny Baker, 41, and Trey Glenn Goodnight, 27.

One of the escapees, Irvin, is in the jail for first degree murder.

The others are doing time for property crimes.

Vents

In late March, Moody and Baker escaped through the vents but were found and returned to the Lincoln County Jail, near Oklahoma City, within several days. Neither had managed to get as far as the state border.

Lincoln County Sheriff Charles Dougherty has admitted the air duct system isn't very secure.

He said: "There's an area between the ceiling and about a 10ft wall. It's made out of wire. They get up on top of that and they're able to jump over an air vent."

Dougherty said he's looking into getting the opening sealed up to prevent any further embarrassment.

He added: "I have already met with three county commissioners and they've been in here with some contractors to look and see what we can do to avoid this from happening anymore."

Prison Break has run for five seasons on TV, starting in 2005.

Fool drops gun and blows off ankle

A DOZY gun lover hid his weapon in a hip holster – only to shoot himself in the ankle when it fell out and went off.

Cops say Jason Trigger was in a shop when he accidentally knocked his handgun from its carry case.

The weapon clattered to the hard floor, causing it to go off, and the bullet ripped through the 35-year-old's ankle.

In a news release, deputies say Trigger left the firearm on the floor after he was shot and limped toward a vehicle in the parking lot with two other people. He was taken to a nearby hospital in Hudson, Florida, where deputies later met him.

After treatment, Trigger was arrested and charged with possessing a firearm as a felon and carrying a concealed firearm. A source said: "What a bloody idiot. He didn't even have a permit.

"Guns a safe but only as safe as the people who carry them.

"If an idiot has a gun then it's less good than a genius having a gun."

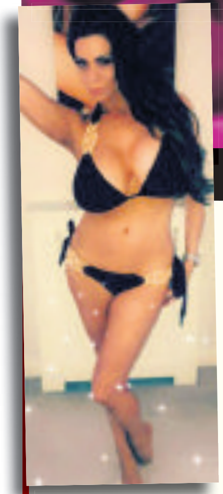
MAKE sure you all tune in to Studio 66 TV on Thursday night from 10pm on Sky channel 912 and from midnight on Freeview channel 185!

I had a great show last week and got so many calls and messages telling me how amazing my body looked, so don't forget your Linsey Dawn McKenzie fix this week.

If you miss me on Thursday though don't worry, as I will be back on your screens at the same time on Tuesday too!

Linsey Dawn McKenzie

SHE'S BRITAIN'S ONLY TOPLESS COLUMNIST



I'VE been training extra hard this week because it's just eight days until I jet off to Marbella for a hen do with the girls!

These past months I've fallen off the wagon a bit and been eating what I want and not going to the gym, but on Monday I was back on track and working on getting that bikini body ready for next week!

It's so strange though because I actually feel like I look fitter when I'm not exercising, and I always seem to get more comments from you guys about how great my body looks when I'm not training hard!

Never mind the ballots!

IT'S less than a week since the Election but I am already sick to death of hearing about it, to be honest.

I was disappointed by the result, but what's done is done and we need to stop dwelling on it.

We are lucky to live in a democracy where we get to have a say on who runs our country, but we're all busy throwing shit at anyone who dares to disagree with us!

Opinions

At the end of the day, the Conservative party won the most seats and they are the ones who now get to form a government whether Labour supporters (including me) like it or not.

Yes, you might not agree with somebody but at the end of the day they are entitled to their opinions and it doesn't make them wrong just because they don't think the same as you.

I can't believe how many rows I've seen online between people slagging each other off because of who they voted for.

I've even had to delete posts off my Facebook wall because people were having a go at each other on there.

It's decided for now and we all need to stick together as a country and move on with things.

It was only a year ago that the country was split over the Brexit result and now I feel like I understand how the 'remain' voters must have felt when they didn't get the decision they wanted.

POLLING STATION

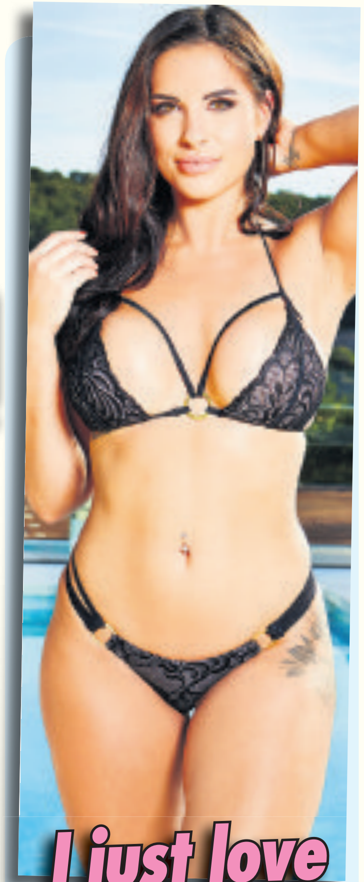
I was first to say that they should get over it when they kept banging on about it, so it would be hypocritical of me to throw my toys out of the pram now because Corbyn wasn't elected.

There will always be someone who doesn't like the outcome, that's just how it is!



I just love Love Island!

I'M already hooked on the new series of ITV2's Love Island – and I was so excited to see a fellow glamour model enter the villa last week!

Jessica Shears is one of the regular models for Sixty6 magazine, which is owned by the same people as Studio 66 TV, so it's great to see one of our own on the telly!

Jessica (above) is absolutely stunning too and looks so fit in her bikinis, so I'm sure she will cause plenty of drama on the show in the coming weeks.

Now that they've all got to know each other, it's starting to get juicy and I can't wait to see who's booted off next!

I don't think Jessica has got anything to worry about though, she's got Dom eating out the palm of her hand!

And who can blame him, I think I'd fancy her too if I was in there!

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

The Mexican-born actress said that 70-year-old Trump had asked her out on a date after charming both her and her fella during an event.

Salma, 50, explained how the American President befriended her partner, got both of their numbers then focused all his attention on her.

ACTRESS: Salma says President wanted her to ditch her boyfriend and date him instead

He also declared her then-boyfriend wasn't 'good enough or big enough' for the busty movie star and wasn't deterred – despite her rejection.

She explained: "He didn't try and come and grab me for sure!

"I was at an event with my boyfriend. Trump put his jacket on my shoulders – I was rubbing them because it was cold.

Charming

"He was so charming, so nice…super nice.

"He said, 'I'm sorry your girlfriend – I saw she was cold…' he kept talking to my boyfriend, and then he befriended my boyfriend.

"He invited him to dinner…and then he was like, 'If you guys are in New York, you can come to Atlantic City, you can stay in my hotel. Give me your numbers'… he never talked to my boyfriend again.

"Then he's calling me and he's inviting me out, and I said, 'What about my boyfriend? Am I crazy? Are you asking me out? You know I have a boyfriend!

"He said, 'He's not good enough for you. He's not important. He's not big enough for you. You have to go out with me.'"

Just a few months ago Salma claimed the President planted a story about her in the national press.

The story appearing to mock Salma's 5ft 2ins height appeared in The National Enquirer last October.

Salma thinks Trump planted it there after she rejected him.

BGT'S DALISO LANDS OWN COMEDY SHOW

A BRITAIN'S Got Talent finalist has landed a comedy show on BBC Radio 4.

Daliso Chaponda (left), who reached third place on the ITV talent show this year, will navigate the "rocky historical waters of Britain's relationship with Africa".

The stand-up, the son of a Malawian politician, said: "I am extremely excited to have a show on Radio 4 because it's been what I've listened to on trains and buses to gigs for years.

"I am delighted that I will now be able to tune into myself!"

Sioned Wiliam, Radio 4's commissioning editor for comedy, said: "Daliso's comedy is shrewd and thought-provoking as well as being very, very funny."

Daliso Chaponda: Citizen Of Nowhere will be his first comedy series.

He came third on BGT behind pianist Tokio Myers and Issy Simpson, an eight-year-old magician.

Sums teacher 'sex with 3 boy pupils'

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A PRETTY maths teacher has been arrested for shagging three pupils – including sucking one of them off in his bedroom.

Erin McAuliffe, 25, has been charged with inappropriate sexual contact with the male students, police said.

She is due to appear in court next week after she was accused of having multiple romps with the boys.

But police have made it clear the incidents were all separate and did not involve a mass underage orgy.

Handling

McAuliffe, who has now been sacked from the Rocky Mount Preparatory School in Rocky Mount, North Carolina, was sexing it up with the two 17-year-olds and a 16-year-old.

While the boys are over the age of consent in the state a teacher is never allowed to suck off or take a pupil's Johnson inside her.

"We have been fully cooperative with local law enforcement during the course of their handling of this matter," school officials said in a statement rushed out to reassure parents after the news broke.

McAuliffe was released from the Carteret County Jail after posting £15,000 bail.

A former student who graduated from the high school last year said he was outraged by the allegations.

Dayvon Steel, 19, told a news station: "It's very shocking and appalling that a person would do that with a student."

A phone listing for McAuliffe has been disconnected, it has also been reported. It's unclear whether she's hired a lawyer to defend her.

McAuliffe, according to her LinkedIn profile, graduated from Methodist University with a bachelor's degree in mathematics.

Pictures from her Facebook page show her in sexy bikinis and saucy fancy dress outfits but it is not clear what she wore to seduce the boys.

Wonder babe was not the Gal for Patty

WONDER Woman scorcher Gal Gadot nearly missed out on the leading role as the director admitted she would have preferred an American girl.

Female director Patty Jenkins said she was disappointed when she heard that the role had already been filled when she agreed to take on the job.

But while not sold on Gal (above), 32, straight away, she admitted she is glad that the Israeli actress landed the part and described her as "a gift".

She said: "I remember when I read in the news that Wonder Woman had been cast and my heart sank.

"I had been talking to the studio for so long about doing it and I was like, well I'm sure we wouldn't have made the same choice.

"And then I started paying attention [to Gadot], and watching her and looking at her – it was unbelievable.

"Frankly, I think they did a better job than I could have. I would have just looked for an American girl."

Sam was 'mad' to do 50 Shades

DIRECTOR Sam Taylor-Johnson wishes she'd never signed up to the Fifty Shades of Grey franchise.

The wife of actor Aaron Taylor-Johnson admitted given the choice again, she'd turn down the job of bringing the raunchy book to the big screen.

Sam, 50, directed the first instalment, which was released in 2015 but declined to return for the second movie, Fifty Shades Darker.

She said: "I can never say I regret it. With the benefit of hindsight, would I go through with it again? Of course I wouldn't, I'd be mad."

JASMIN

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

RAVEN-haired scorcher Jasmine certainly fell into the right career as she loves baring her BOOBS.

The 22-year-old glamour pin-up, from Hounslow, West London, said she feels at her sexiest when she's posing topless for the cameras and isn't shy when it comes to taking her kit off.

Surprisingly though Jasmine's perky 34C knockers aren't the body part she receives the most praise for from the opposite sex.

She said: "It wasn't as if I grew up thinking I wanted to be a glamour model, but I've always been really photogenic and felt at home in front of the camera.

Empowering

"And when I decided to give modelling a go, I realised straight away that this was something I would enjoy doing.

"I'm not shy when it comes to flaunting my figure and I find posing topless – or even nude – for the cameras really empowering. It makes me feel so sexy!

"I always get comments from fans who tell me how perfect my boobs are, which is nice to hear, but when I go out on the town it's a completely different story.

"Whenever men approach me in bars, it's actually my big, brown eyes that they comment on first!"

Tell girls a gag if you wanna get a shag!

GOOD news, fellas – boffins have finally figured out what women REALLY want.

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

New research has revealed the qualities that are most likely to get women into bed – but if you've got a beard, then it's bad news!

The majority of women said that a bloke with a beard is an immediate 'no' with 93 per cent saying that they love a man who takes pride in his appearance.

Men's grooming brand men-ü carried out the survey and quizzed more than 2,000 British ladies on what they look for in a lover.

Surprisingly, it came out that most women would like to be laughed into bed, as the things that were most important to ladies are humour and personality with 77% of the vote.

And according to the stats, the ideal man would be funny with good banter and 'lovely eyes', as well as smelling good and being clean shaven.

The girls also revealed which celebrity men they would most like to shag and named Hollywood star George Clooney as their perfect fella.

In second place were 'nice eyes' (61%), followed by a nice smile (51%), a good scent (40%) and intelligence which mattered most to just 37% of those polled.

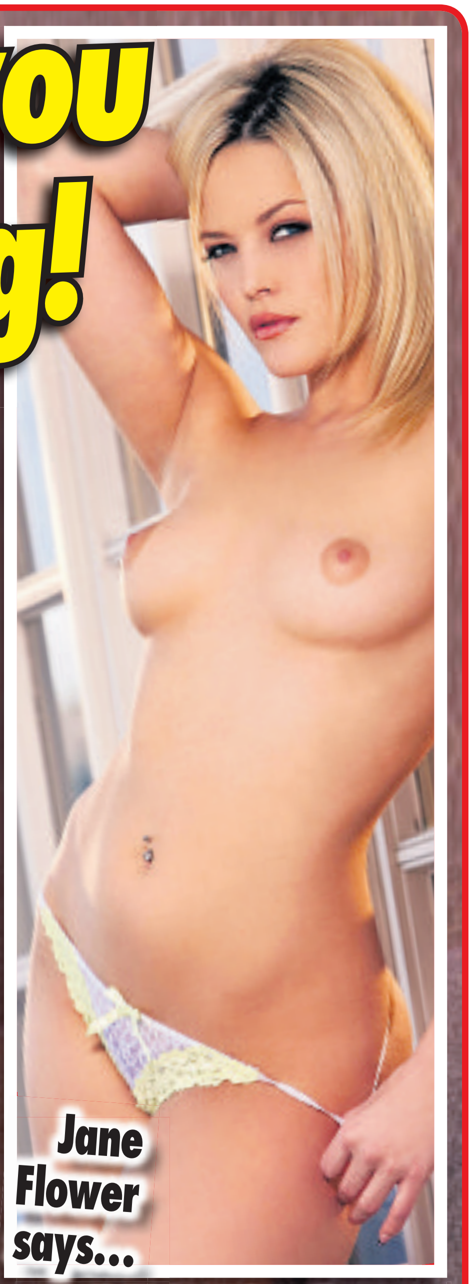
Priority

Only a quarter of women wanted a tall guy, and just 16% of girls said a fit body was a priority for them when choosing a partner.

The survey also proved that times have changed when it comes to modern women choosing their mates, as only one fifth said they wanted a chivalrous man.

Just 35% of women confessed they would prefer a witty bloke while 36% said they were after a man who knows how to be compassionate.

We asked three of our fittest Midweek Sport babes what they're looking for when it comes to finding a man to hop between the sheets with.



Jane Flower says...

> IF a bloke has a good sense of humour then I'm putty in his hands. There's nothing more attractive than someone who knows how to make you laugh, so I'm not surprised that trait came out on top in this new research.

Victoria Dunn says...

> I AGREE with the survey – what woman wouldn't want to hop into bed with George Clooney?! It's all about looks for me – I need a tall, dark and handsome chap.

Carrie Rothwell says...

> OH my God! How come no-one has mentioned the real deal breaker – a good package downstairs! Obviously I want a nice-looking bloke with a good personality, too. But at the end of the day if a man can't satisfy me sexually then it definitely won't last!

Sex toy lovers enjoy one off the Brits!

Gia Lashay

Age 25, 36DD-24-34, from Leicester

ALMOST half of Brits own a SEX TOY and the average person has a cheeky wank THREE times a week.

By BECCA STUBBS

becca@sundaysport.co.uk

A new survey revealed that folk in the UK are enjoying some one-on-one time with themselves three times every week.

The study, undertaken by award-winning sex toy firm, Mr & Mrs Toy, looked into the sex lives of British men and women.

Their X-rated poll uncovered the private moments behind closed doors and found that half the country owns a sex toy – with BUTT PLUGS being one of the popular choices.

Vibrators are the most common with anal toys running a close second.

In total a whopping 48% of people who were quizzed said they owned some type of sex aide.

And women said they masturbated twice a week, with blokes having a private play three times every week.

A third of women used a sex toy to help them reach the big-O and older women are the most likely to own a toy.

Those in the 45 to 54 age group confessed to owning the most toys with 8% owning five or more dildos.

While younger people also like to get involved they prefer anal sex toys to get them off.

Anal

In the younger age group, 10% of 16 to 24-year-olds admitted to owning five or more butt plugs and 20% of 35-44-year-olds own five or more sets of anal beads.

Midweek Sport babe Gia LaShay also loves a quiet moment with herself – and her toys – and told us: "I absolutely love to masturbate.

"Whenever I'm horny, which is most days after work, I go straight upstairs and spend hours playing with my toys.

"I can make myself orgasm more than twice and after reading how popular anal toys are I'm going to invest in a kinky one of those, too.

"I've tried anal sex a few times before but have never been that impressed.

"Maybe easing myself in with a toy might be the way forward.

"If there are still girls out there who haven't tried a sex toy then they need to – even if you've got a fella it will spice things up in the bedroom for BOTH of you!"

Grips

The told Midweek Sport: “I’ve never had a threesome, but it’s definitely something I’m up for in the future.

“I’d love to get to grips with another woman while a man watches. Wouldn’t that be sexy?

“Then maybe later on he could come over and join in.

“I’m just waiting for the right offer to come along. Women are just so sexy. There’s something so hot about a woman with amazing curves. They’re so soft when you kiss them as well.

“Women have amazing lips because they look after them.”

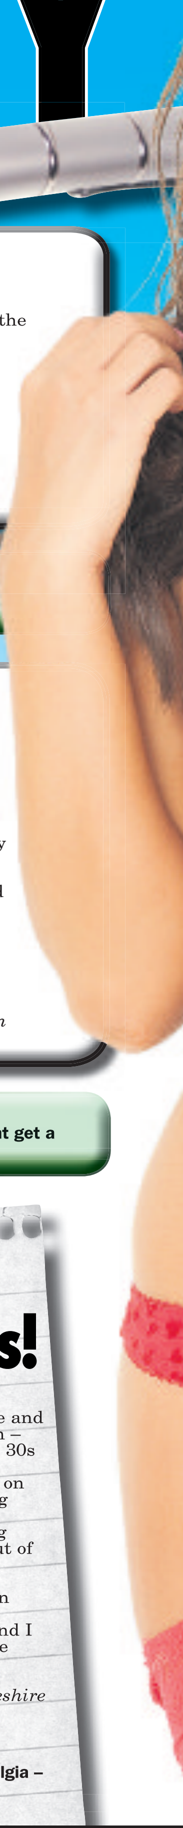
THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page



Dear Kelly,

I AM a 27-year-old woman and the other day out shopping the wind lifted my skirt to reveal my knickers.

I was in a car park and a hunky fella loading up his boot gave me a cheeky grin, having got a right eyeful.

I don't know what came over me but I bent over and sure enough a gust of wind blew my skirt up again – and this time I let the fella get a really good look at my white panties and stocking tops – it felt so naughty!

Now I always go out in short, flimsy skirts on the off chance I can flash at lads.

I can't be nicked for it can I?

FS, Bristol

Kelly says…

I DON'T see there's a problem. At least, I can't see many fellas lodging a complaint!

Dear Kelly,

MY mate's mum looks and acts like that sexy Susanna Reid off the telly.

She's divorced and when I go round to my mate's house she is always very warm and welcoming towards me.

I've lost count of the number of times I've lay awake at night thinking about her and wanking myself to sleep.

But I was shocked the other evening when I called for my pal and she told me he had just gone out in his car on an errand for her.

She said I could come in and wait for him – then she said we had 10 minutes if I fancied "a quickie"!

I thought she must have meant a drink – but she reached out and unzipped my jeans, took out my floppy cock and gave me a fantastic blowjob, there in the hallway.

I was stunned and delighted and now I can't get her out of my mind – I'm thinking about her day and night.

What can I do?

AL, north London

Kelly says…

GIVE her a big bunch of flowers and you might get a shag out of it!

Clack to the Seventies!

Dear Kelly,

I'M a 32-year-old gardener and the other day I was out trimming the hedges at a large posh house when this right stunna came outside and offered me a cold beer.

Well, it was a warm day and I could see the drink had been chilled so I decided to down tools for a bit and take a break with this very tasty woman.

We stood chatting for a while and it soon became clear that she fancied me – and a good shagging – as she explained her hubby had done a runner with his mistress a few weeks earlier and how lonely she was.

She said she was impressed with the way I had trimmed her bushes and that she would like me to come inside and trim her own little pant bush!

I didn't need asking twice and quickly followed the woman – who I guess was in her late 30s – inside her house.

Withing seconds she was on me, with her tongue darting into my mouth and a hand rubbing hard on my bulging crotch before she slipped out of her clothes and ripped her knickers off to reveal the biggest 1970s bush I've seen since I was a kid!

My cock leapt to action and I gave her a good back scuttle over the couch.

How's about that?

SD, Cheshire

Kelly says…

YOU clearly love a bit of nostalgia – I reckon you must be one of those retrosexuals!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week KELLY MCGREGOR has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Bad boy neighbour is red-hot fantasy lover

Dear Kelly,

I'VE always been attracted to bad boys and love watching them on telly and in films – wishing that I was in a relationship with a rogue.

My hubby is all right in a straight kind of way, but he's so dull.

Now I've got a chance to have my own naughty lad but I'm not sure what to do about it.

Frustrated

Our neighbour died a few months ago and her house has been bought by a sexy mechanic.

He comes home from work every day in his greasy overalls, looking all sweaty and pumped up, and it's sending my blood pressure and hormone levels soaring.

I started watching out for him from the window and now I've even taken to pretend to be gardening so I can be outside and exchange pleasantries with him.

But I really want to exchange more than pleasantries with him, I can tell you.

At first, all I used to do was nip into the bathroom and have a bit of a fumble inside my panties while thinking about his hard body and big muscles all covered in tattoos and sweat.

I'd push a couple of fingers in and out of my dripping ct and tickle my clit – but my finger work isn't too great and I would just end up feeling frustrated.

I have also started fantasising about what his cock looks like when it's erect.

I imagine myself gently stroking his long, thick shaft with both hands while struggling to fit his huge, glistening bellend into my mouth.

And I dream about cupping his balls as they tighten just as he bucks back and forth before unleashing a huge stream of hot spunk down my throat, which I greedily swallow.

I get so wet just thinking about tasting his salty juices and think I'll go mad if I don't suck him off soon.

Over the last week or so, though, things have changed and he's been giving me the come-on and flirting outrageously.

I reckon sex is definitely on the cards and it's left me in one hell of a dilemma.

I'd go for it straight away, but I'm worried about hurting my poor nice-but-dull hubby.

What would you advise?

GA, Suffolk

Kelly says...

FORBIDDEN fruit can be fantastic but it often leaves a nasty taste in your mouth.

Steer clear of the mechanic and work on spicing things up within your marriage to bring back the va-va-voom.

Girl of my dreams gets the full service

Dear Kelly,

I'M a mechanic at a busy garage and we get plenty of female drivers popping in for a service.

The other day when the boss was out, a sports car pulled up in our yard and out stepped a stunning blonde girl in her early 20s.

She was really fit with massive tits which she clearly liked to show off in a very low-cut top.

All the lads quickly downed tools to rush outside and try to chat her up but with me being one of the more senior staff at the garage I told them to back off while I had a chance to try and help her first.

Needless to say I gave her the old charm and invited her inside to the boss's private office where I pulled out all the stops.

She was laughing at all my jokes and I could tell she was really into me so I suggested we pop to the local pub for a drink, while her car was looked at.

We really hit it off in the pub, and after finding a nice quiet corner in the snug area, she soon had her hand down the front of my jeans.

One thing lead to another and we found ourselves in the ladies, going at it in a locked cubicle.

I gave it to her front and back before she gobbled me off, swallowing the lot.

Trouble is I've since found out she's actually the boss's DAUGHTER and now she wants a free service and MOT or she'll tell her old man that I've been shagging during work time and taking advantage of his little princess.

What should I do?

JW, via email

Kelly says...

SEEMS to me she's already paid you!

Dear Kelly,

I HAVE the most perfect girlfriend and our sex life is out of this world.

We only met six months ago but she soon moved in with me.

She loves shagging and we have sex whenever and wherever the mood takes us, at the drop of a hat.

We've done it in all sorts of weird and wonderful positions and in every room of the house.

She's great at handjobs and blowjobs and loves to make me shoot my load at least twice before grabbing my todger and thrusting it deep inside her.

And when it comes to spunk, she absolutely loves it – swallowing the lot or sometimes making me blast my sticky load all over her tits.

She's tighter than any other girl I've had and she behaves like an absolute slut in the bedroom.

My girl will try anything I suggest and we have a very experimental love life.

She likes me to finger her bumhole when we're fking and often begs me to stick my dick up her arse and give her an anal creampie, too.

But last week she came home with a strap-on dildo and said she wants to bum me while wearing it.

I'm not too keen – will it hurt?

BC, Somerset

Kelly says...

WHY not give it a try – you may love it!

Dale, from Rhyl, North Wales, is an office manager and likes to decorate his private workspace with snaps of 26-year-old Epiphany, from Chester.

Dale, 51, said he loves the brunette's 30Ds, adding: "She's everything I like in a girl – brown hair, lovely smile and gorgeous boobs, too.

"My office is covered with her topless pictures – looking at those sexy shots always makes the day go faster!"

ANISSA KATE

PARK ranger Nigel McIntosh has his eyes on French fancy Anissa Kate.

The 46-year-old green-fingered fella, from Inverness, trims bushes for a living but would love a sneak a peek at Anissa, 29, has to offer.

Nigel said: "I often get lost in those 36Ds while ogling her topless pictures – she's bloomin' gorgeous.

"My job involves looking after the parks in Inverness and I'm often alone in them at night.

"It would be amazing if Anissa joined me one evening!"

TEAGAN

CHEF Peter Noone describes topless tease Teagan as his ideal girl and said he would love nothing more than to wine and dine the glamour babe.

Peter, 41, from Southend, said he'd whip up a menu packed with aphrodisiacs in the hope of wooing the 29-year-old model.

Manchester beauty Teagan boasts perky 34DDs which Peter revealed he can't enough of.

He said: "Her curves are simply stunning.

"I'd cook her oysters and provide a nice glass of red wine to get our juices really flowing…"

SPEARMINT JAY SCOTT

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

JUICY Jay Scott loves sunny weather because her kinkiest habit is getting down and dirty in public.

The 22-year-old stunna from Taunton, Somerset, is a bit of an exhibitionist and admitted she gets turned on when people watch her get jiggy.

Jay said she has a filthy mouth and regularly flaunts her 32DD natural curves for horny people on the TV chat channels.

She said: “I love being naughty in public places and the more public, the better!

“I just love being watched while I’m getting up to no good.

Rough

“I also have a filthy mouth which comes out on the TV chat channels I work on – I really love it when I know I’m saying the right things to my callers.

“Real manly men are my type – those who have beards and muscles and are a little bit rough around the edges.

“He has to smell nice, too, and know exactly what he wants. It helps if he takes control in the bedroom and enjoys rough sex, like I do.”

Spearmint Rhino has a number of gentleman’s clubs around the world which boast the most beautiful dancers.

If you can’t make it to a club, you can find Spearmint Rhino girls at boxing and Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) fights around the country, or at the British Superbike Rounds.

Dar won't start after injury blow

BIG BLOW: John Gosden

GOSDEN ACE FORCED OUT OF ROYAL ASSIGNMENT

By MIKE FRANCIS

SO MI DAR is out of Royal Ascot after missing too much work at home.

John Gosden's filly did well last season, winning her first four races before coming home third in the prestigious Prix De L'Opera in France.

She has not been out on the track since that October contest and was being aimed at the Princess Of Wales's Stakes next week.

Gosden has been trying to get a run into here but she missed the Middleton Stakes at York because the ground was too soft.

Then a muscle issue forced her out of the Brigadier Gerard Stakes at Sandown.

It means the Royal meeting has come a little too soon — but she will be back.

The filly is owned by Lord and Lady Lloyd-Webber and their racing manager Simon Marsh said: "She's fine in herself, but she had the muscle enzyme problem and it is just taking a little bit of time for her to get it completely out of her system.

"There is nothing wrong with her physically, but she's missed a few bits of work and won't be ready for Ascot, unfortunately.

Plans

"It's incredibly frustrating, but she has no leg problems or broken bones or anything like that.

"She will be back, it's just a question of when.

"Having targeted the Prince of Wales, I don't think we'll be making any definite plans at this stage." At the moment it is more about horses who WON'T be an action next week with the bad news that Main Desire is out for the season.

Michael Bell's filly made a big impression when winning at York last time and was fancied for the Queen Mary Stakes.

Unfortunately, she has had a setback but her trainer is confident it won't end her career.

Bell said: "She won't be running in the Queen Mary.

"It's desperate for all concerned, particularly her owner Steve Parkin, because according to the bookmakers at least, she had a leading chance.

"It's crazy to speculate at this stage, but what I can say for certain is that she won't be running on Wednesday week.

"It's unlikely she'll run again this season, but hopefully she'll be fine for her three-year-old career. I hope it's not career threatening.

"It's hard to take. We still have Big Orange in the Gold Cup and Ronald R in the Britannia along with a few other bullets, but she looked to be our best chance."

SETBACK: Elsworth

Storm blows over at Ascot

SWISS Storm is another high-profile horse missing Royal Ascot.

David Elsworth's colt was being touted as a potential Derby winner before his poor showing in last month's Dante Stakes.

The son of Frankel is taking a short break while connections plan the rest of his season.

That means missing his assignments at the Royal meeting.

Elsworth confirmed: "He won't be going to Royal Ascot. He's had a small issue that has put him back a month.

"He's OK and we're just erring on the side of caution."

It looks as though the taps are going on at Ascot with a dry forecast ahead of their big meeting.

The going is already good to firm and the course plan to put some water on to make sure it doesn't get any harder.

Clerk of the course Chris Stickels said: "The track is in great condition at the minute and we are watering.

"We've got a dry week forecast, certainly until next Tuesday, possibly Wednesday.

Water

"Even next week might remain dry.

"There is a risk at the moment of possible showers building up towards the end of next week, but we're expecting a warm few days this week.

"Conditions are good, good to firm in places. By the time we've finished watering this morning, I expect we'll be good all over.

"We're expecting a hot day on Wednesday. We won't water then, but we'll review the forecast and see what we're going to do later in the week."

There is plenty of work being done off the track as well.

It's still not known if the Queen will be able to attend all five days because she may have to open Parliament next week.

That would be a major blow for the huge crowds but Stickels is staying upbeat.

He added: "There's lots of work going on and there's a huge amount of staff here at the moment getting everything ready in the enclosures.

"It looks like we're going to have some amazing racing."

THE WINNING POST

Joe can land a blow

ALTHOUGH the Flat is in full swing and Royal Ascot is around the corner, today's NAP runs at Worcester over the sticks.

By BEN MORGAN

Graeme McPherson is developing quite a nice string of young horses and one of those is BENEFICIAL JOE (NAP) who has been in my notebook since running Always Lion close on chasing debut.

The winner is highly rated by a top stable and did well to hold off the challenge of McPherson's charge who looks an out and out stayer.

He fell next time out at Uttoxeter where I think he would have gone close and today looks a good opportunity to open his account over fences.

A mark of 120 may well underestimate his ability and I'm very sweet on his chances.

Back on the level, Richard Fahey's DANCE DIVA looks the best bet at Haydock this afternoon.

The Cheveley Park filly beat Miss Dd who has since won impressively at Pontefract on Monday evening and the pair pulled a little way clear of the rest.

She ran a little green when passing the stands at Redcar on debut but was well on top at the finish line. If she has learnt from that experience she should be able to give 4lbs and a beating to her rivals today.

HUGIN looks to have a realistic chance of adding to his impressive victory at Newcastle last time in the 3.00 at Haydock. That run up on Tyneside was his first for David Simcock and despite not seeing a track in over a year, he swept his rivals aside quite comfortably.

He probably saw too much daylight as the pace collapsed quite emphatically and he was left in clear view on the outside, but if Spencer can find plenty of cover then the step up to a mile should be right up his street. The handicapper may regret handing him an opening mark of 84.

William Buick is an eye catching booking aboard MERLIN in the 4.00 handicap sprint. Michael Bell's charge looked to be much more suited by more pressing tactics over a shorter distance last time and probably won with a bit left in the tank. Buick will no doubt try to use the same tactics again, against a relatively small field which could play to his advantage.

FIT AGAIN: Rory McIlroy

Rory's Bjorn again for US Open charge

GOLF: US OPEN

RORY McIlroy can show his class by winning a second US Open this weekend.

That's the verdict of Europe Ryder Cup captain Thomas Bjorn who thinks the Northern Irishman will bounce back from his injury problems.

He has been out for a couple of months with a rib problem that was blamed on him trying out too many sets of new clubs last winter.

McIlroy came back earlier this season in good form but has been struggling with his ribs again over the past few weeks.

He was forced to miss the prestigious PGA Championship as a result.

So he's badly undercooked as he heads to a tricky Erin Hills course looking to add to his 2011 US Open win.

Bjorn admitted: "He would love to have played more.

CONFIDENT: Bjorn

Competitive

"He sets his mind on a schedule and when he can't do it he suffers a little bit in not getting the right preparation, but then you have to prepare another way.

"Great players adapt to the situation they are in and he is capable of adapting to it.

"It's never nice to play big events if you haven't been playing competitive golf, but that isn't to say he can't go do it."

Another Irishman, Shane Lowry, is hoping for a better outcome to this year's tournament.

BLEW IT: Lowry

He famously blew a four-shot lead 12 months ago as he hit 76 in the final round.

His form has continued to dip since then and he's slipped outside the world's top 50.

But there were positive signs in the PGA where he was near the head of the leaderboard until fluffing the final four holes.

He said: "It was still a great week last year.

"I showed that I can win and I showed that I'm as good as anyone. That's what I had to take out of it. Obviously I didn't do a great job in taking the positives out of it at the end of last year.

"It's not easy. You go into the next major and people are talking about you winning, and I've never had that before. It's just not easy.

"And then obviously the Ryder Cup, I was trying to make that and didn't do that.

"So all in all I was pretty disappointed with how it ended up last year."

LATEST FROM NEW ZEALAND

FUMING: Warburton

SAM Warburton slammed his British and Irish Lions stars for giving away too many penalties against the Highlanders.

By BILL HARE

The Kiwi club side toppled the tourists 23-22 in an exciting clash in Dunedin.

It's the second defeat of the tour for the Lions who conceded a whopping 12 penalties during the match.

That saw them blow a 10-point lead in the final 25 minutes.

Warburton boomed: "There was a string of four penalties in that second half when we were in decent territory, but we gave away four penalties in a row.

"That gave them way too much territory and momentum and they scored off that eventually.

"When we beat Crusaders on Saturday we kept penalties to single figures and that didn't happen here.

"You have to give the Highlanders credit because they forced pressure to give away penalties, but we have to keep penalties to single figures."

God knows what the Test matches against the All Blacks are going to be like because this game was played at breakneck pace from start to finish.

The Highlanders swarmed all over the Lions in the first quarter, crossing the line through Waisake Naholo.

Control

That woke the tourists up and Jonathan Joseph showed his class to cross the whitewash a couple of minutes later.

They went into the break all square at 10 points each.

It looked as though the Lions had taken control when they increased their lead after the break.

Tommy Seymour pulled off a brilliant interception and scoring an individual try.

Then Warburton himself crossed for a captain's try that should have put the result beyond doubt.

He linked up well with Joseph who looked a lot better going forward than in his defensive paces.

That brought another game response from the Highlanders who barged over through hooker Liam Coltman.

He put his head down and employed raw brute force to force his way past the Lions defence.

It sent the game into the final 20 minutes with the home side just three points behind.

Owen Farrell came off the bench with 11 minutes left to miss a tricky penalty that would have sealed the win.

Kick

Then came the vital three-pointer that gave the Highlanders glory.

It came after a scrum shove put the Lions on the back foot and Dan Cole was all at sea.

Matty Banks popped the penalty over to kick off a frantic final six minutes. The Lions had more chance to win it when Elliot Daly was given the chance to kick from around 57 metres out.

In the old days they would never have tried and his trusty boot had the ball on target — but it fell a couple of feet short.

Coach Warren Gatland thinks the defeat was still a positive experience for his team.

He points out that they don't play together very often and he expects improvement before the Tests kick off.

Gatland said: "We gave away a line-out for their try after having cleared our lines.

"We know we need to be better in those moments to make sure we don't compound our errors.

"We were inaccurate at times, they kicked the ball quite smartly to put us under pressure.

"The players are learning that it is about playing for 80 minutes and being in the moment.

"We always said that coming to New Zealand was going to be tough against the Super Rugby sides. They are the best rugby nation in the world."

Liam's ready to rock T20 for England

CRICKET

LIAM Livingstone says he cannot wait to pull on an England shirt for the first time.

The Lancashire all-rounder has been called up by the Three Lions for the T20 international series against South Africa.

The 23-year-old has made a big impact for the Red Rose county and is averaging more than 50 with the bat.

His big-hitting style brought him fame a couple of years ago when he smashed 350 runs from just 138 balls playing for his club side.

Now he hopes to take that sort of destruction on to the international stage.

He said: "It was obviously a very nice moment for me to get called up and I'm just looking forward to next week now.

"Your performances get you picked and it's a great environment in which to be playing at the moment.

Proud

"I'm guessing that the senior squad is pretty similar to the Lions in that you get a lot of freedom and that's very suited to the way I play my cricket. It's very exciting.

"It's nice to be going into the full squad with the confidence of having scored runs in Lions cricket behind me.

"There's a group of lads that are coming through at the moment and it's very exciting times for English cricket when you see the way the senior team are playing in the Champions Trophy.

"From your very first day hitting a cricket ball, playing for England is what you want to do and it will be a very proud moment.

"You want to play all three formats at the very highest level for as long as you can but I'm still a work in progress."

Livingstone is not getting carried away though and knows he is still establishing himself in the Lancashire team.

He added: "I just want to do my best for Lancashire and if this came, it came.

"I was never thinking about it happening. There's still a lot of hard work to be done but I hope I can move up into that environment and keep up the hard work.

"I've also tried not to change myself very much and I just hope I can go in and be the same as I am in county cricket."

The first of the three-match T20 series is next Wednesday under the lights in Southampton.

TOFFEES PICK CATS KEEPER

EVERTON have won the race to sign Sunderland keeper Jordan Pickford for £30million.

The hottest goalie prospect in the country is ready to pen a long-term deal at Goodison Park.

The offer of guaranteed first-team football by Toffees boss Ronald Koeman fought off late interest from Arsenal. The England Under-21 stopper hit the headlines with a string of impressive displays for the relegated Black Cats last season.

By MARK NAYLOR

Everton tried to sign the Mackem last month but were forced to put another £10m on the table.

Pickford is with the England squad at the U21 Euros where they open the campaign against Sweden on Friday.

He said: "I have spoken to my agent and told him that I just want to concentrate on the Euros and be the best I can be.

"For me, having grown up at Sunderland, seeing people you've known for a long time losing their jobs is not nice.

"But I feel like as a team and staff behind the scenes we did the best we could do and it was just unfortunate that we never got the results and points that we needed."

The deal is thought to be for £18m up front, with the rest coming when certain milestones are achieved.

The move can go through when the transfer window officially opens on July 1.

It could be a busy season for the Toffees with Koeman unveiling a lengthy shopping list.

Ajax forward Davy Klaassen is the one he really wants.

He has been in cracking form for the Dutch side that were beaten by Manchester United in the Europa League.

Impressed

He has scored 27 league goals in the past two seasons from his deep lying role.

Klaassen plays in a similar position to Ross Barkley and any move for him would signal the end of the England star's career at Goodison Park.

He has just one year left on his contract and Everton need to cash in on him this summer before he leaves on a free.

Manchester United are thought to be sniffing around the 23-year-old.

Sandro Ramirez is another Koeman target as he looks to improve on Everton's seventh-placed finish last season.

The 21-year-old impressed for Malaga last season, scoring 14 La Liga goals.

The former Barcelona striker could cost a bargain £5m thanks to a release clause in his contract, although the Toffees would face competition for his signature.

Saturday night all right for football

LIVE Premier League football could be coming to Saturday nights.

Top-flight clubs are examining proposals to offer an extra 30 games to broadcasters when the rights next come up.

They would kick off at 7.45pm on Saturdays.

It would take the total of televised games to a whopping 200 per season.

That's up from around 170 that are screened in the current deal and means just over HALF of all Premier League games will be live on the box.

The rights are up for bidding later this year with the Saturday night matches starting in 2019.

It's part of a move to keep TV revenue high, with the rights currently costing Sky and BT £5.14billion over the next three years.

A Premier League spokesman said: "The Premier League is more popular than ever due to the fantastic football put on by clubs and the commitment of fans.

"In season 2016-17 stadiums were a record 96.5 per cent full, unique broadcasting reach in the UK was up 2% on the previous season and matches were available to watch in one billion homes in 188 countries."

Numbers

Despite all this extra footy being available, viewing figures for live games plummeted last season.

Audiences are down by around 15% for Premier League action and a staggering 40% for the Champions League, which is now only on BT Sport.

The Sky fall is the biggest from season to season in the seven years the numbers have been recorded.

It's prompted a crackdown on illegal streaming, with Kodi boxes being particularly targeted.

More and more illegal streaming services will be closed down before the new season kicks off.

But Sky also point to the fact that big clubs like Newcastle and Aston Villa have been replaced in the top flight by sides with smaller followings like Bournemouth.

That has a knock-on effect on the numbers tuning in to the less glamorous games.

The Premier League fixtures for next season will be revealed later today.

GRIEZ SIGNS...FOR ONE SEASON

ANTOINE Griezmann has signed a new deal at Atletico Madrid — but has still dropped a heavy hint that he won't be there for long.

The striker was linked daily with a move to Manchester United.

That was until Atletico were hit with a transfer ban which meant they have to keep hold of their best players.

Griezmann has now signed a new deal taking him until 2022.

And he tried to say sorry to the Atletico fans for being so obviously linked with United.

But even then he has managed to leave the door open to speculation about his future.

By PAUL THOMAS

Griezmann said: "The first thing that I want to do is apologise to the people who misunderstood my statements.

"Maybe I expressed myself badly or someone wanted to make news where there weren't any, but since I came, I have given my all for my club, my teammates and my coaching staff, and I'm very happy to live one more season with all of you.

"I will thank them all by giving my best on the pitch, as always. Now, I will be resting for a few days to recover and return with my teammates and the coaching staff to prepare the season in Los Angeles de San Rafael, like every year."

Club president Jose Luis Caminero is delighted to keep his star man.

He said: "It's great news because he is one of the best players in the worldh him.

"Antoine is a different football player, capable of changing a match, with spectacular qualities, a very complete player.

"He is also a football player willing to sacrifice himself for the team when it's needed and works on defensive tasks too."

It's Griezmann's killer phrase "I'm very happy to live one more season with all of you" that is keeping tongues wagging over here.

After this transfer window, Atletico are able to buy players again and will be looking to offload some existing stars to fund a spending spree.

Boss Diego Simeone looks like he's staying for the timebeing too, which makes it easier for Griezmann to stay in the Spanish capital.

Atletico were happy to let him join United for around £85million and had lined up their former star Diego Costa from Chelsea as his replacement to keep the fans happy.

It's the Rickie & Dustin show!

OPEN AND SHUT CASE: Rickie Fowler should go well

FOWLER AND JOHNSON IN OPEN

THE US Open begins at Erin Hills on Thursday with last year's winner Dustin Johnson 15/2 favourite at BetVictor, Jordan Spieth and Rory McIlroy 12s, Jason Day 14s and 20s Spanish sensation Jon Rahm and Ricky Fowler.

Length and accuracy off the tee is paramount on this 7,741-yard course but the fairways, it should be noted, are generous.

Of the 35 majors since Tiger Woods' last victory in a major at the 2008 US Open, 22 of the 35 winners have been first-timers including the last six.

My two against the field are Fowler (yet to win a major) and Johnson who both have the ideal game for the course although the same, arguably, could be said of a fit again McIlroy and Day.

Other markets of note include the 3/1 for Adam Scott to finish in the top 10 at BetVictor. The Aussie has been consistent of late and his recent record in the US Open is Tied 9th- T4th and T18th.

Scott doesn't strike me a possible winner (28/1 with BetVictor) but I expect him to be there or thereabouts again.

England play Pakistan in the first semi-final of the ICC Champions Trophy in Cardiff this morning – as good as the Pakistan bowling is their batting is flaky and the hosts are 5/4 at BetVictor to lift the Trophy at Lords on Sunday with India – who meet Bangladesh at Edgbaston tomorrow in the second semi — 6/5 favourites.

England are 4/11 to beat Pakistan (2/1) and an England v India final on Sunday would be a wonderful occasion. Eoin Morgan has a big decision to make – do they stick with the misfiring Alex Roy at the top of the innings or give Yorkshire's Jonny Bairstow a crack as an opener.

I hope they go with Bairstow although I feel they persevere with Roy – the latter is 9/2 to be the top England batsman with Bairstow the same price.

India are 1/4 to beat Bangladesh (3/1) and the Tigers have done wonderfully well to reach the last four – but I can't see them beating an Indian side who did have their own wobble against Sri Lanka who easily chased down 321 at the Oval.

India will have plenty of support in Birmingham and with the weather set fair until the end of the tournament, I would be surprised if we didn't have anything other than an England v India final on Sunday, which is 7/10 with BetVictor.

Sunderland keeper Jordan Pickford looks to be on the verge of joining Everton (1/10) and has been cut from 3/1 to 5/4 to be named in the England squad for Russia next summer. The fee of £30m sounds excessive until you remember that the Blues were prepared to pay Newcastle the same fee for Moussa Sissoko last summer – Spurs will have to take a big hit when they offload him this summer.

Manchester United's £30m signing of Swede Victor Lindelof might mean the end of Chris Smalling's Old Trafford career this summer.

Smalling is 8/1 to join Arsenal this summer and the Gunners may have a considerable war chest if Alexis Sanchez gets his move to Manchester City.

Sanchez is 4/6 with BetVictor to sign for Pep Guardiola at the Etihad although, if the Chilean were to leave the Emirates, Arsenal would want the striker to move to the continent with Bayern 7/2 second favs.

Bayern boss Carlo Ancelotti is reported to be ready to offload Douglas Costa who is 2/1 to join Juventus this summer although Spurs 6s and Liverpool 12s are reported to be monitoring the situation.

Tammy takes time to make up his mind

TAMMY Abraham is making Newcastle and Brighton wait until the Under-21 Euros have finished.

The two Premier League newcomers are desperate to sign the Chelsea striker on loan for the new campaign.

The 19-year-old was a massive hit for Bristol City in the Championship last season, banging in 26 goals for the struggling Robins.

While Chelsea are insisting on keeping him on their books, they would be happy for him to have a season in the top flight — at a club they don't consider to be title rivals.

Newcastle boss Rafa Benitez is on record as saying Abraham is more than capable of performing in the top flight.

And Chris Hughton's Brighton are looking for more firepower in their first crack at the Premier League.

TARGET: Hughton

Better

As for Abraham, he has his mind on England duty.

He said: "I haven't spoken with Chelsea yet. I am focusing on this tournament, so the discussions will happen after.

"I'm not too sure about the future. Hopefully, it will be in the Premier League.

"After this season, I need to take myself to the next level.

"That's the type of person I am, I always want to do better. I always want to do more.

"So going into the new season, my aim will be to top this one."

ADMIRER: Benitez

Brighton will find out today if they have been awarded a home game on the opening day of the season.

The fixtures come out at 9am today and the club have asked to kick off the campaign in front of their own supporters.

Hughton said: "It's a big day for any club, but it will be a bigger day for us, a realisation of Premier League football.

"You would like a home fixture first, but you probably want a fixture list that comes out as a decent spread.

"It can go either way. You can end up having a difficult start, but as long as there's an even spread I think we'll be happy.

"The last thing you want is a really difficult start.

"Results breed confidence. For us in the Premier League a decent start will be different to the Championship."

RIGHT BEHIND YOU: Ramsey is buzzing about Wenger staying

AARON Ramsey insists the whole Arsenal squad is delighted that Arsene Wenger is staying.

Maybe he hasn't asked Alexis Sanchez — who is on the verge of leaving — but it seems as though all is well at the Emirates.

Wenger signed a new two-year contract after steering the Gunners to fifth place in the Premier League.

Their FA Cup final win against Chelsea made sure the season ended on a high — but the reality of the Europa League has yet to bite.

By JOHN ANTHONY

Despite missing out on Europe's top competition, Ramsey insists the mood among the players is nothing less than positive.

He admits that Arsenal's form was hit by all the talk of the manager leaving last term — not to mention the fan protests.

Ramsey said: "It is hard when all that speculation is going on.

"As a player, you try to put it to the back of your mind but obviously you are not sure what is happening.

"We're glad now that it has finally been announced he's staying. We're all happy.

"Hopefully now we can start the season strongly and have a real good go, not just for ourselves but for him as well."

Ramsey points to a sharp upturn in form in the final few weeks of the season.

System

Arsenal won nine of their past 10 games including the Wembley win against Chelsea.

Wenger switched to a back three during that run and Ramsey thinks that system could be here to stay. He added: "I think that system suited us in the end, it showed with the way we finished the season and winning the cup in that formation.

"It suits the team, it gives us a lot more security defensively, not so suspect to counter-attacks.

"But also it frees players up to do more things, get into more dangerous positions.

"I'm confident it will and I scored a few goals at the end of the season.

"It allowed me to get into some dangerous positions and thankfully I put them away."

Ramsey spoke for many

TERAN SIGNING FOR TWO MORE YEARS

E'RE ALL GUNNING FOR THE GAFFER

Ramsey thrilled that Wenger's staying

Arsenal players in saying that it's a shame they left their run of good form until too late.

He added: "I'm disappointed the season's finished

"I wish it was another 10, 15 games.

Trouble

"I'm happy with my form, so hopefully I can go into next season now with the same form."

Despite all the positive talk from Ramsey, there is definitely trouble brewing with Sanchez.

While fellow contract rebel Mesut Ozil looks likely to pen a new deal, the Chile striker has set his heart on a move.

The problem is that he wants to sign for Man City — and Wenger has said "over his dead body" on that score.

The Gunners boss has learnt his lesson from when he let Robin Van Persie sign for Manchester United — and promptly fire them to the title.

One of the signs that Wenger has the backing of the Gunners board is his telling Sanchez that if he wants to leave it must be for Paris St Germain or Bayern Munich with a Premier League move out of the question.

The Arsenal boss is digging his heels in so much that he's prepared to take a big hit on the transfer fee to let Bayern succeed — and he will even let Sanchez run his contract down to keep him out of City's clutches.

Chief

Another victory for Wenger is the end of plans to bring a director of football into the Emirates.

It was thought that one of the conditions of him staying at the club was that the board wanted to bring in someone to sit above the Frenchman.

Chief executive Ivan Gazidis was thought to be lining up a director of football late on last season.

But Wenger told the board that he wasn't happy with the idea — and it appears he has got his way.

There will be a new man brought in but he will have no authority over the manager, who will continue to have complete control of football matters.

That has also ended talk of a shake-up in Wenger's coaching staff.

ALL'S WELL: Wenger

CITY SLICKER: Walker

Kyle's a Walker so Pereira comes in

TOTTENHAM are resigned to losing right-back Kyle Walker — and want Ricardo Pereira to replace him.

The England defender is on the verge of a £40million switch to Manchester City after getting fed-up with boss Mauricio Pochettino.

The pair have fallen out over the rotatio system that sees the Spurs full-backs playing only one game per week.

Portugal international Pereira has been on loan at Nice from FC Porto for the past two seasons.

The 23-year-old has been one of Ligue 1's star players and can play right-back or wing-back.

He will cost around £20m from Porto and won't ask for wages that bust Tottenham's structure.

The only snag is that Bayern Munich also like the look of Pereira as a replacement for Phillip Lahm, while Paris St Germain are also on the radar.

Targets

Tottenham finished second in the Premier League last term but are looking to strengthen in the transfer window.

Pochettino has made another central defender his main priority along with an attacking midfielder and striker to replace Vincent Janssen who is likely to leave.

Matthias Ginter of Borussia Dortmund is on the radar at the back, while Ross Barkley and Gylfi Sigurdsson are targets for the creative positions.

Walker has made up his mind about leaving the club as he also wants to boost his meagre £70,000 a week wages.

City would be happy to boost that past the £100,000 mark and are in the market for an entire new defence.

The 26-year-old would slot in at right-back and be a major upgrade on Bacary Sagna who has been released by the club.

Tottenham are also being linked with Nice midfielder Jean Michael Serri — a player on Arsenal's radar.

The 25-year-old midfielder scored seven and provided nine assists in the league last season.

The Gunners are thought to be in the driving seat, although Spurs have the trump card of offering Champions League action.

Jose bags Real striker in £60m deal

By JOHN ANTHONY

ALVARO Morato is on his way to Manchester United.

The Real Madrid hitman will cost the Reds £60million.

But Jose Mourinho is delighted to have secured the services of one of Europe's hottest strikers.

He became his No1 target when Atletico Madrid hitman Antoine Griezmann decided to stay in the Spanish capital.

But Morata is happy to have sealed his move — and to be the main main after playing second fiddle at Real to Cristiano Ronaldo, Gareth Bale and Karim Benzema.

Despite being in and out of the team, the 24-year-old has managed to hit the target 20 times last term.

He started just 14 league matches but managed 15 goals thanks to 12 subs appearances.

AC Milan were also in for him but United have managed to blow the Italians out of the water.

Morata's agent Juanma Lopez confirmed that the Reds had agreed terms with the player — and now Real Madrid have accepted that £60m is all they will get.

Lopez said: "United is a club with a lot charm, a very interesting option. I can say that there's a very important offer and the decision now rests with Real."

Morata is a key signing for Mourinho, who sees him as the ideal replacement for the injured Zlatan Ibrahimovic. He will form a potent partnership with Marcus Rashford.
